

THE FACE OF SURGICAL TRANSFORMATIONS

DR. CHET MAYS

A native of Somerset, Dr. Chet Mays holds a shared vision with Dr. Bradley Calobrace in bringing the most advanced techniques and technology in plastic surgery to the region. After training in New York, Dr. Mays was honored to join Dr. Bradley Calobrace in Louisville and Lexington, KY at CaloAesthetics Plastic Surgery Center in August 2016.

Blending traits of the artist and the innovator, Dr. Mays looks to provide his patients with the improvements they are seeking, while offering his own perspective on each patient's aesthetic goal. He performs a range of procedures, with a focus on facial aesthetics surgery, breast reconstruction, breast enhancement and body contouring.

Dr. Mays is a compassionate physician who understands that the best cosmetic result comes from collaboration between patient and surgeon.
