

THE FACE OF BREAST AUGMENTATION

DR. BRADLEY CALOBRACE

Patients travel from all over the country to receive surgery at CaloAesthetics Plastic Surgery Center, especially to seek out the care and expertise of one of the most recognized authorities on cosmetic breast surgery, Dr. Bradley Calobrace. He is highly regarded as an expert surgeon and educator in cosmetic surgery and non-surgical procedures by both patients and peers.

A board-certified, Los Angeles-trained plastic surgeon in private practice since 1997, Dr. Calobrace regularly educates peers from around the world and holds faculty positions at UofL and UK where he works with fellows on an ongoing basis to advance their knowledge and techniques in cosmetic surgery. A man of vision, Dr. Calobrace established CaloAesthetics and CaloSpa to bring the latest technology and techniques in plastic surgery and non-invasive cosmetic procedures to Kentucky and surrounding areas.

Dr. Bradley Calobrace, a tireless innovator with a patient-first philosophy.
